

"...that they might be called trees of righteousness"

As we navigate these scary and challenging times, I hope that you are all able to find peace and contentment knowing that our Lord is in control. It is my hope that we here at Houghton Academy have been responsive and supportive as we navigate these challenging times and initiate a new way of learning together. Thank you all for your patience, feedback and for your encouragement over the past few weeks.

As we take a week to pause, rest and hopefully renew ourselves, I pray that you may have an amazing week together as a family, with your friends or just enjoying a little solitude as we meditate on the resurrection of our Lord and Savior.

Do not be anxious about anything, but in every situation, by prayer and petition, with thanksgiving, present your requests to God. And the peace of God, which transcends all understanding, will guard your hearts and your minds in Christ Jesus.

- Philippians 4:6-7

Create in me a pure heart, O God, and renew a steadfast spirit within me. Do not cast me from your presence or take your Holy Spirit from me. Restore to me the joy of your salvation and grant me a willing spirit, to sustain me.

- Psalm 51:10-12

Therefore we do not lose heart. Though outwardly we are wasting away, yet inwardly we are being renewed day by day.

- 2 Corinthians 4:16

I will refresh the weary and satisfy the faint.

- Jeremiah 31:25
