

"...that they might be called trees of righteousness"

Great message today in my devotional from Paul David Tripp's New Morning Mercies in which he speaks about how we can or should be secure in our future because God has "secured an end" to our stories. I'll leave you with the last line from today's devotion.

"So remember today that no matter how hard your story is right here, right now, it is guaranteed for you as God's child that it will end better than anything you can now imagine, and that glory will never end!"

<sup>3</sup> Praise be to the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ! In his great mercy he has given us new birth into a living hope through the resurrection of Jesus Christ from the dead, <sup>4</sup> and into an inheritance that can never perish, spoil or fade. This inheritance is kept in heaven for you, <sup>5</sup> who through faith are shielded by God's power until the coming of the salvation that is ready to be revealed in the last time.
