

"...that they might be called trees of righteousness"

This week is Teacher Appreciation Week. I want to personally thank all our teachers for their dedication to our students, for their patience and hard work as we have tackled the challenging circumstances imposed as a result of this pandemic. Your daily thoughts of your students, your efforts to motivate, inspire and communicate your curricula in a meaningful and lasting way are greatly appreciated.

I also want to encourage the rest of us... students and parents to drop your teachers a quick note sometime this week sharing your appreciation, words of encouragement or just to say hi.

Thank you all and I hope you have a great day.
